General Comments:	Riley developed and delivered an effective lesson on employee skills. His objectives were clear and all the learning activities were clearly aligned with the objectives. He provided for learning differences in the use of a variety of modalities. Riley had an excellent rapport with the students which contributed to a well managed classroom. He encouraged critical thinking and tied it to authentic learning in his class discussion. The students worked both individually and collaboratively which increased student engagement. Riley is very much ready for the next step in his professional development.
